CAREER SUMMARY

Final-year CSE student at Maulana Abul Kalam University of Technology (GPA: 8.64). I enjoy building end-to-end products around practical problems I encounter in everyday life, turning personal pain points into simple, usable solutions. Alongside software development, I have gained direct exposure to client-facing work, stakeholder coordination, and HR operations through internship roles at an MSME accelerator company. Comfortable translating technical concepts for non-technical audiences and operating across development, operations, and business functions simultaneously.

CampusChain - Campus Operating System | github.com/Samrajnee/CampusChain

MVP · Testing Phase · Potential Final-year Project

- Architected a unified platform to replace 5-10 disconnected tools (Google Forms, Excel, WhatsApp) that institutions rely on for governance, identity, and student operations - none producing a verifiable record.
- Core modules: tamper-evident elections with voter-token anonymity; digitally signed certificates with QR verification; XP ledger + badge engine; auto-generated student resume PDF from full activity history.
- Every student action feeds a portable, employer-shareable profile via a public verification link - eliminating credential fraud and paper trails.
